The 2010 season schedule continues to grow and grow at the World's Home of the Figure 8®. And today it was announced that the very successful Drift Indy tour is back and better than ever. Now known as the Midwest Drift Union, they'll once again put on some great programming at the Indianapolis Speedrome®. The sideways craze known as Drifting takes over the famous fifth-mile for three unique doubleheader weekends. This hottest new form of motorsport where driver control reigns supreme will join us May 22, May 23, July 3, July 4, October 2, and October 3. Those daytime events are Saturdays and Sundays.

"We have worked hard to get drifting started in Indianapolis, since no one was giving the birthplace of speed a second look", said MDU director Edgar Sarmiento. "The Speedrome has given us full support for our sport helping to keep drifting off the street. The events have grown exponentially the past few years at the track and 2010 is shaping up to be even bigger". MDU will be limiting the amount of drivers entered at each date to keep the seat time high. Like Sarmiento says, if you have tires left over, you didn't drive enough. To enter or for more information, you can contact them at info@mdudrift.com or go to their web site at mdudrift.com.

The Midwest Drift Union was formed to bring the entire Midwest together under one welcoming and positive organization. It's a series that's allowing the best in the region to drive together, compete, and have fun sharing the passion of drifting. With over 10 events on the schedule this year, it'll be one series to keep an eye on.

Each event's Festivities will start at 7am for drivers and 11am for spectators. MDU welcomes new drivers and veterans alike. If you're interested in driving this year, visit mdudrift.com for details or email info@mdudrift.com. Spectators are very welcome to come out at a cost of $10 each with kids 12 and under free. Also passenger passes will be available at $5 each. If you have never been to a drifting contest, you are really missing out on all the fun!
